1. The contract between RCPATH and delegate

There is no charge for this event. Once the delegate receives confirmation email then the booking is confirmed. If the College does not receive a booking, or does not confirm a booking, the contract is not established. All communications relating to the contract must be as set out in paragraph 7 below.

2. Right to cancel your contract

2.1 You may cancel your contract with RCPATH for a booking at any event, in accordance with the following conditions: -

2.1.2 Delegates may transfer their booking to another event if notification is received within 48 hours of the original session. If there is a difference in value, payment must be received in advance of the event. This must be requested in writing via email to meetings@rcpath.org. RCPATH will confirm acceptance of the request to transfer sessions by email as soon as possible.

3. Cancellation by RCPATH

- 3.1 RCPATH reserves the right to cancel the contract if:
- 3.1.1 the event you have booked a place on is cancelled by RCPATH or a third party;
 - 3.1.2 exceptionally RCPATH does not have an available place at the event.
- 3.2 If RCPATH cancels your contract, RCPATH will notify you by email or phone. RCPATH will not be obliged to offer you any compensation for expenses incurred by you or inconvenience caused to you as a result of the cancellation.

4. Liability

- 4.1 Save as precluded by law, RCPATH will not be liable to you for any indirect or consequential loss, damage or expenses (including loss of profits, business or goodwill) howsoever arising out of any problem you notify to RCPATH under this condition, and RCPATH shall have no liability to pay any money to you by way of compensation.
- 4.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in these terms and conditions is intended to limit any rights you might have as a consumer under applicable English law or other statutory rights that may not be excluded nor in any way to exclude or limit RCPATH liability to you for any death or personal injury resulting from RCPATH negligence.

5. Communications and Notices

Unless otherwise expressly stated in these terms and conditions, all notices from you to RCPATH must be in writing and sent by email to: meetings@rcpath.org

6. Circumstances beyond the control of RCPATH

- 6.1 RCPATH shall have no liability to you for any failure to organise an event at which you have booked a place, or any delay in doing so, or for any problems with events organised that are caused by any incident or circumstance beyond our reasonable control including, without limitation, strikes, lock-outs and other industrial disputes, breakdown of systems or network access, flood, fire, explosion, accident or pandemic.

7. Invalidity

If any part of these terms and conditions is unenforceable (including any provision in which RCPATH excludes liability to you) the enforceability of any other part of these conditions will not be affected.

8. Privacy

You acknowledge and agree to be bound by the terms of the RCPATH Privacy Policy.

9. Data Protection

RCPATH will only send you communications about this event. RCPATH only shares the information necessary to fulfil the task for example dietary or access requirements. Further information on data protection can be found in our Data Protection Policy

10. Third party rights

Except for RCPATH trustees, elected officers, employees or representatives, a person who is not a party to this agreement has no right under the UK Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this agreement but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party that exists or is available apart from that Act.

11. Governing law

The contract between you and RCPATH shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with English law and the English courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve any disputes between you and RCPATH.

12. Entire agreement

These terms and conditions, together with current contact details and privacy policy, set out the whole of the agreement relating to the provision of the place at an event to you by RCPATH. Nothing said by any person on behalf of RCPATH should be understood as a variation of these terms and conditions or as an authorised representation about the nature or quality of any events offered for booking by RCPATH. Save for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, RCPATH shall have no liability for any such representation being untrue or misleading.
